Job Placement: YMCA Temuco. Chile

Position: English teacher

From February to May

General description:

Nowadays, there is an English learning need in our region. This is why; YMCA Temuco has started with a new project to provide members and non members the possibility of development in this important area. Some staff members are also very interested in being trained in English to improve their performance and working skills.

Those are the main reasons we are requesting an English teacher with experience in adult learners and who would like to share his or her own culture and also learn about Chilean people and traditions. Other of our goals is to provide children at social risk some English formal instruction classes in our YMCA Social Centre.

As a host site we offer:

Accommodation: it will be provided by the YMCA TEMUCO. Some families will be very happy to share with the participants during periods of time from two weeks to one month. We are also willing to pay for accommodation in hostels in Temuco city.

Meals: The host families are going to bring participants all meals. Otherwise, YMCA Temuco will pay for them.

Facilities: the volunteer will be allowed to use all facilities in our YMCA, such as: swimming pool, gym, fitness classes, etc.

Recreational, cultural and sport activities: Our region is rich in culture and different touristic points of interest which are amazing for practicing sport, travelling and interact with Mapuche people. Our YMCA Temuco has many activities in which the go global volunteer will participate.
