For The Trainee:

1. Did your training plan unfold as it was explained to you?

Yes, it was exactly the same.

No, it fell short.

It was much better.

No, it was a complete failure because...

Please explain:

2. How would you describe the supervision in your host site?

Excellent. I learned a great deal!

My supervisor was sufficiently helpful.

A disappointment. Please explain:

3. Describe your interaction with your YMCA contact person.

I don't know who my contact person is.

I never hear from him/her.

I seldom hear from him/her.

He/ she is there when I need him/her.

How can we improve?

4. How helpful are your new skills in the professional world?

What I learned is what I need to advance.

I believe my skills will be helpful.

I believe my skills will not be helpful

Ask me that again in five years.

Please explain:

5. Please list the formal training sessions you have attended:

6. How could your host have improved your program?

7. Please comment on the balance between formal training sessions and “on-the-job” training?

8. How do you plan to use the training you have received upon return to your home country?

9. What could the YMCA International Branch have done to enhance your overall stay?

10. What could your host have done to enhance your overall stay?

11. How do you rate yourself at the end of your stay?

I have improved professionally and personally.

I have improved professionally, but have remained the same person.

I have improved personally, but gained little or no professional skills.

International Training & Internship Program End of Stay Evaluation

No changes.

Please explain:

12. How do you describe your relationship with your supervisor(s)?

13. In what community services were you involved?

14. If you were involved in community service, how did this add to your experience of living and working in the US?

15. How do you rate your understanding of American culture at the end of your stay?

- I've learned a great deal.
- I was already familiar with American culture.
- I was too busy with training to spend time elsewhere.

16. This experience has helped me understand the differences and similarities between my home culture and the host culture.
